Thank you, Sandy Anderson, for arranging for such a good speaker at the October luncheon. Mike Clay kept us all fascinated with his knowledge and wit. Thank you, too, BJ Schueneman and your committee, for putting together a wonderful array of activities for all of us to choose from. I just finished writing the Chronicle newspaper article and listing all the upcoming activities just through December. Read all about them here in this newsletter. The list is awesome!

In keeping with the theme of “getting to know your Board,” Sandy Anderson, our VP for Programs, writes: I came to Citrus County with my husband, Ed, from Belleville, Illinois, which is across the Mississippi from St. Louis. It is a move for which I am still thankful. The only drawback to being here is having all my children and grandchildren (Abby, Luke, and Callie Caye) up north.

By profession I am an RN/PNP (Pediatric Nurse Practitioner). I retired from Abbott Labs in 2002. I have three great loves — reading, kids, and music. The first thing I did when I arrived here was get my Library Card and get involved with “TOW” or “Tales on Wheels.” This program is sponsored through the Library System and uses volunteers to read to pre-school children. I’m in my 10th year and can’t imagine not reading to “my kids.” I also joined “Friends of the Library” and, with my husband, volunteer and work the Book Fairs. When not busy working and doing things with Newcomers, I also volunteer with the Chamber of Commerce and work the Manatee and Strawberry Festivals. Like Julie, I am also a member of Citrus Hills Women’s Club and am serving on the Scholarship Committee this year.

I joined Newcomers and became VP and then Co-President (with Nancy Kellow) for 2006-2007. This is such a great club and truly represents all the women of Citrus County. I have stayed involved in some capacity since that time and look forward to many more years with this wonderful group where I have found good friends, old and new friends, and to participating in the many events we do together.

Barbara Hamerling, Asst. to VP Programs, writes: My husband, Harvey, and I moved to Brentwood last October — can’t believe it’s a year! I am a NJ native and my husband was originally from Brooklyn, NY. We moved here from Mahwah, NJ, where we lived for the last 13 years. We have a daughter, Amy, who lives in Fair Lawn, NJ.

I am now retired but was formerly an executive assistant in the insurance field and my husband is also retired from an accounting position.

I read about the group in the paper and wanted to meet other women in the area. My decision to take a board position was a good choice. I have met many people and find everyone in the group very friendly. (I feel I can start a conversation with anyone.)

My hobbies are genealogy (been doing this for more than 20 years). I even help others get started on their family tree — just contact me if you need help. My second hobby is bingo. My mom took me to her games when I was very young and I still enjoy it.

I am very happy that I joined this great group. Thank you.

Next month, look for bios from Bunny Bucci and Chris Harvey (I’m trying to keep the officers and their assistants together).

REMINDER! Important information to read!
We know that you’re really excited to come to our luncheons.
However, our luncheon volunteers need time to set-up and get prepared. Please be patient and allow our volunteers to complete their jobs so that everyone can have a most pleasant luncheon experience. Please wait for the doors to officially open. The time for doors opening for each luncheon is listed in the Newscomer.

Do NOT leave unattended valuables,
like purses, to save your seat at a table.
Place your napkin on your chair, if necessary.
Try this! Sit with Newcomers you haven’t already met. You might make a new best friend.
